INFERIOR RIDING BLAMED

Upsets at Latonia Ascribed to Lack of Good Horsemanship.

Rockminister Knocked About and Unplaced—Miss Jemima Wins in Good Style—Runzaf Fails.

LATONIA, Ky., October 4.—Today's racing resulted in frequent disappointments for most of the big crowd that was at Latonia. Upsets were numerous and it was not due to lack of speed on the part of those horses in which confidence had been reposed. Poorly judged rides, also a woeful lack of skill on the part of some of their riders were primarily the contributing causes to bringing about failure.

At no time in any one day at this meeting has there been such an accumulation of bad riding.

Jockey Lunsford, only restored to favor this afternoon, was the most conspicuous one in the bad riding line. His lengthy absence from the saddle coupled with a strenuous course of reducing, has left him, at least for the present, seemingly unfit to show his real skill. It was only too apparent in his riding of Rockminister in the feature dash that brought together some good two-year-olds at a mile.

Lack of post alertness caused Rockminister to stumble at the start and shortly afterwards, while going to the first turn, Rockminister suffered from interference and had to be taken back. Lunsford at this time was completely rattled and guided his mount into trouble again when attempting to extricate himself at the half-mile ground, but again was thwarted. In the last quarter he attempted to come through next the inner rail, but here he found a solid wall of horses in front of him and shortly afterwards he was effectively hemmed in and Rockminister was forced to shorten his stride and could never get to going freely.

Meantime, the leaders were fighting it out in strenuous fashion, with an outsider, Yoshimi, just succeeding in outstaying the fast coming Bet Mosie, while the latter's stablemate Bill and Coo held on long enough to finish third.

BLUNDERING TACTICS BEAT BROOKHOLT.

In the succeeding race, at three-quarters, Lunsford again figured sharply by his blundering tactics on Brookholt, which almost shared favoritism with Miss Jemima. He began taking him back early in anticipation of getting cut off and then took his mount all over the track and ultimately on an outer course in the stretch. Miss Jemima, with her early speed, took the lead and held it for the entire race. Ginger succeeded in outstaying Brookholt by virtue of having saved much ground when he slipped through next the inner rail on the stretch turn.

The disappointments began at the outset when Runzaf, backed with rare confidence in the initial dash, failed badly and finished in third place, Ben Bolt and Tharon showing him the way home. Runzaf led for a half mile, but was done then.

Cloughjordan was the one that had the call in the second race. Parrett had the mount on him and gave him an indifferent ride, resulting in his failure to finish among the placed ones. It is doubtful at that if he could have beaten Bud Fisher under the most careful riding, for the colt was in a running mood this afternoon and never left the result in doubt. Treasurer, a supposed good one, finished second and Brother John accounted for the shorter portion of the purse.

Dimples was centered on by most as a retriever of previous losses, but again they did not allow for the filly's incompetent handling. Cinderella long overdue, won here by virtue of Scobie's superior skill. The uncertain Furbelow followed her home, with Peggy C. in third place.

Jouett was given the call in the sixth race, but met defeat by Wickford. Herd Girl, another extensively backed one, ran a poor race and seemingly refused to extend herself fully.

Gregory made some amends to his followers in the closing race, in which he had the mount on Lady Longfellow and won in runaway style from Lackawanna and Ava R.

FRIGID WEATHER PREVAILS.

Frigid weather ruled here this afternoon and the sudden wintry change contributed to a decreased attendance and required heavy topcoats for comfort. The track had dried considerable since yesterday and, while good, showed some traces of wetness in spots.

The continued downfall of choices made a big inroad in bank rolls, but the racing was interesting, several of the close finishes causing a frenzy of excitement.

Trainer J. C. Milam said this afternoon that Pegasus came out of his fall last Saturday in a bad way and is out of racing for the year at least.

W. F. Knebelkamp, owner of the Louisville baseball club, was among the day's visitors. He announced that he would again take part in Cuban racing next winter. His stable of fifteen in charge of W. B. Finnegan will be forwarded to Havana at the close of the Churchill Downs meeting. R. C. McDermott will go along to ride for the stable.

H. E. Coleman was sent a mile and a half in 2:39⅘ and pulled up sound. His performance was good, in view of the fact that the track was somewhat soft.

Dissatisfied with the recent races of Kinburn, the stewards called John Gallaher, the owner, before them prior to the first race and asked for an explanation. He said he could not account for Kinburn's race in which he was favorite and finished last, unless it was a bad ride which he thought Pool gave him. He said he had bet on the horse on that occasion and produced some tickets to verify his statement. He was told that the stewards did not consider Pool to blame, that in their opinion the horse was deficient in speed on that day. Pool was questioned by the stewards and said he had used his best endeavor, that he had ridden the horse with whip and hands and got no response. While the stewards took no action, they stated that the future races run by the Gallaher horses would be closely watched.

KENILWORTH PARK TODAY

Final 1921 Meeting of Canadian Racing Associations to Begin This Afternoon.

WINDSOR, Ont., October 4.—The opening of the final meeting at Kenilworth Park, which is scheduled to begin tomorrow, marks the beginning of the end of the racing season on the Canadian Racing Associations tracks for 1921. At the conclusion of the seven days of racing here will come a scattering of the horsemen. A special will leave Detroit direct for Oriental Park, Cuba, and another for New Orleans. The Canadian owners will retire into winter quarters.

Secretary Norvell has provided a good program for the opening day. The purses will range from $1,200 upward and during the seven days' racing handicaps for a purse of $2,000 will be featured daily. The officials are practically the same as provided at the previous meeting, with the exception of M. N. Macfarlan, who will act as one of the stewards.

The club did a wise thing in setting the opening of the meeting back until tomorrow, as the extra day enabled horsemen who raced at Woodbine plenty of time to get here. With the tail end of the season horses are none too plentiful, many of the stables having gone to Maryland and Kentucky. There are enough horses here, however, to warrant the races being well filled, the only scarcity being among the Canadian-breds.

The Brookdale Stable sent a majority of their horses from Toronto to their farm at Barrie, where they were retired for the year.

The G. M. Hendrie stable shipped direct to Kentucky from the Woodbine.

It is quite likely that the division of the Commander Ross stable that is racing at Kenilworth will be campaigned at one of the winter tracks.

Fred Schelke, who is looking after the Thorncliffe Stable horses, is another Canadian who may race at one of the winter tracks.

Francis Nelson, who will be the steward representing the Canadian Racing Associations, was an arrival from Toronto. Edward Cole, who will fill the position of presiding judge, got in from New York.

Starter Harry Morrissey turned down offers to start at a couple of the smaller meetings in the States and plans to go from here direct to his farm near Lexington, Ky.

The stallion Cudgel and the brood mares that Commander Ross is sending to Kentucky will arrive at Morrissey's Kempland Stud some day next week.

The management announced that the races in condition books would all be set back one day, with the exception of Saturday, which will run as originally carded.

Jockey Hinphy was an arrival from Montreal. Eddie Flynn is handling bock for jockey J. Huntamer during the present meeting.

E. G. Vivell arrived from Baltimore to assume his duties in the heads of the mutuel departments.

A carload of horses arrived from Montreal this morning, all shipping in first-class condition.

THIRTY LEADING AMERICAN JOCKEYS

The struggle for the riding honors of 1921 becomes keener and more interesting as the end of the year approaches. B. Marinelli, by riding five winners last week while Sande was piloting one, not only maintained his leadership, but widened the gap that separates him from the Rancocas star. W. Hinphy, the star of the half mile tracks, rode the most winners last week, ten, and is now in third place, with L. Fator closely following. Fator rode nine winners last week and bids fair to be a formidable rival for both Marinelli and Sande. Others that did well last week were F. Coltiletti, L. Lyke and C. Ponce, each with six victories to his credit. The standing of the thirty leaders from January 1 to and including the races of Saturday follows:

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

The two-year-old War Canoe, by Tippecanoe—Grandma, has been turned out until next year.

"Bud" Fisher, H. H. Hewitt, Montfort Jones and J. S. Hawkins are the big winners to date at Latonia, while Scobie is the leading rider.

A Montreal sportsman has purchased the two-year-old Dorando and will reserve him for the King's Plate, to be run at Blue Bonnets next year.

The entries for the seven stake features to be decided at the autumn meeting of the Empire City Racing Association, which will bring to an end the metropolitan racing season of 1921, show increases over those of 1920, the total for this year being 358 as compared with 279 last autumn.

Thirty-two horses, the property of A. K. Macomber, were sold by auction in the paddock at Longchamps on Thursday last and realized $120,000. The highest price obtained was paid for Masquerado, a two-year-old, by Sea Sick.—Masquerade, which brought $10,600. Batsman, a yearling, by Maintenon—Bat's Delight, brought $8,200.

FAVORITES GAY DECEIVERS

Big Crowd at Jamaica at Sea Selecting Winners—First Disqualification.

NEW YORK, N. Y., October 4.—Benjamin Block, owner of Morvich, champion two-year-old colt of the year, seems to have exceptional luck with juveniles. Mawrcoron, son of Bryn Mawr—Coronis, the only other horse racing in Block's colors, scored his second victory in a row in impressive fashion in the Lynbrook Selling Stakes at Jamaica today and incidentally earned for his owner the sum of $3,175.

Five two-year-olds faced the starter in the feature. Hephaistos set the early pace, while Mawrcoron kept close up. On the far turn the Block colt challenged the pacemaker, and although he drew clear almost immediately and held a good lead when he came into the stretch Wilson kept his mount under a vigorous drive to the finish. He held a two-length advantage at the end.

Bruening rode a good race on Leghorn. He brought her up rapidly in the stretch to displace Hephaistos and take second place, although never seriously threatening the winner.

One after another the public choices tumbled before their less fancied opponents and the big crowd which journeyed to the track had a rather unprofitable time of it. Fine weather and the Jewish holiday contributed to make the throng of spectators an exceptional one for a week day. The racing ground had dried out well after Monday's downpour and fast time was recorded in most of the races.

The first disqualification of the meeting came with the running of the third race. Miller, who had the mount on Prince James, and Babin, astride Cote d'Or, were both guilty of rough riding tactics, but Miller and Prince James suffered the displeasure of the stewards.

While Wrecker was setting the pace to the stretch turn Miller, on Prince James, was making repeated attempts to slip through next to the inner rail. He was as often blocked by Babin on Cote d'Or until the turn into the straightaway. Here Wrecker forced Cote d'Or wide and this allowed Miller to get through on the inside with Prince James and the pair quickly passed Wrecker, to fight it out under a drive through the final eighth. Prince James outlasted Cote d'Or by a nose, while Wrecker finished a length and a half behind.

The stewards called Miller to the stand and questioned him regarding his ride. The offense which brought the disqualification of Prince James was committed by Miller going to the first turn. He crossed over in front of Golden Flint, forcing the latter against St. Patrick and knocking both out of contention. The stewards awarded the race to Cote d'Or, second to Wrecker and the third money to St. Patrick, which finished fifteen lengths behind the Redstone starter.

START AIDS COMIC SONG.

As is usual in a race with a large field of rather green horses, the start decided the first race, a selling dash at five and a half furlongs, for two-year-old maidens. Thirteen nonwinners went to the post and J. E. Widener's Comic Song, son of Black Jester—China Song, was away fastest of all and drew away into a long lead and maintained it throughout, never seriously menaced. Meantime Miracle Man, the heavily supported favorite, and Forest Queen, the well-backed second choice and receding favorite, were attempting to work their way up through the field. Several of the juveniles ran greenly all the way. Bullet was swerving back and forth across the track and Royal Primrose also showed a marked lack of racing education. Marinelli, on Miracle Man, succeeded in getting his mount clear and had no trouble taking second place. Forge Ahead was third, due mainly to L. Fator's rigorous finish, in direct contrast to H. Swart's effort on Forest Queen.

Owners and trainers on metropolitan tracks who refuse to send their horses into the cheaper races are responsible for the sort of travesty on the sport to which the spectators were treated in the second race. There are selling platers and selling platers—cheap ones and cheaper ones—but the four that faced the starter for this dash were probably the worst lot of thoroughbreds that New Yorkers have seen recently.

There were Gem, Frizlet, Titanium and Royal Jester. The latter, it will be recalled, was one of the high-priced yearlings brought from England by J. K. L. Ross. Much was expected of him, but when he failed to develop as a two-year-old the Canadian sportsman sold him at auction. He was the worst of the bunch today.

Gem was not nearly as bad as the others. Fator held her under restraint until the turn out of the backstretch, where she moved up easily to pass Frizlet, which Weiner had kept in front to that point by riding with much energy. The Berrilldon filly then ran away from her opponents and was only cantering at the end twelve lengths in front of Titanium, which passed the tired-out Frizlet turning into the stretch.

GENIE W. A REPEATER.

Genie W., again an outsider in the betting in spite of her victory over the same horses on Saturday, defeated the odds-on favorite, Irish Dream, by a large margin in the Lafayette Handicap at one mile and seventy yards. It would seem that the daughter of Star Shoot is a much underrated filly if her performances recently are to be taken at their face value.

McAtee got Genie W. away well and took the lead going to the first turn. He kept her there all the way and increased her advantage steadily to the finish. She finished three lengths in front of Irish Dream, while Light Rose was third. The favorite met with interference soon after the start, but Fator brought him back into contention in the backstretch and kept him under vigorous pressure to the end in a vain effort to overhaul the leader.

Ten-Lec was many pounds better than her opponents in the Brunswick Handicap, at three-quarters mile. She was sent into the lead immediately by Kummer and drew away into a commanding lead before reaching the turn. After that she had nothing to worry about so far as the others were concerned and cantered across the finish seven lengths ahead of the Greentree's Good Bye. Good Bye retained the place by half a length from Vista.

Jockey C. H. Miller was set down by the stewards for four days for his foul riding on Prince James in the third race.

E. J. Crawford sold Black Prince to T. Quinlan. The horse will be shipped to Erie, Pa., for racing.

THEY'RE OFF AT LAUREL

Immense Crowd Is Present for Opening of Autumn Meeting.

Billy Kelly Defeats Crocus in Capital Handicap—Tippity Witchet's Fine Performance.

LAUREL, Md., October 4.—Never were conditions more favorable for the opening of a race meeting than those that prevailed here today when the Maryland State Fair threw open the gates of beautiful Laurel Park for twenty-three days of racing. Clear skies and a warm sun dried out the track so that when the bugle called the horses to the post for the inaugural dash the course was fast. Train after train brought the crowds from Philadelphia, Washington, Baltimore and surrounding cities. Great was the enthusiasm displayed and everywhere were heard praise for the management on the beauty and splendor of this magnificent place of amusement.

The principal racing attraction was the $5,000 added Capital Handicap, at three-quarters of a mile. Withdrawals left only six of the thirteen overnight acceptances, Tryster, Captain Alcock and Tippity Witchet being the most prominent of those that stayed away. H. P. Whitney's beautiful and speedy filly Crocus was the pronounced favorite. She ran a smashing race, but had to lower her colors to Commander J. K. L. Ross' ever popular Billy Kelly. The latter, carrying 129 pounds, followed Crocus closely from the start and the pace was certainly fast, the half in 46⅘. At the sixteenth post Billy Kelly answered Kelsay's call with the speed that has often brought victory, quickly passed the game Whitney filly and was only cantering at the end. Careful was third, finishing fast and almost overtaking Crocus at the end.

No horse is more popular in Maryland than the ever green Tippity Witchet and great were the cheers that rang out as the little Broomstick gelding overtook Dark Horse and in a game finish beat him by a small margin in the sixth race, at one mile and seventy yards. Dark Horse was the "dark horse" of the race. The extreme outsider in the betting he surprised them all by opening up a big lead at the start and showing the way throughout, only to fail right at the end before the superior speed and gameness of Tippity Witchet.

Moco, a daughter of Zeus—Sans Gene, by Rock Sand, won the first dash of the afternoon, a race for two-year-olds at three-quarters of a mile. Fair Virginia, with F. Coltiletti in the saddle, was the choice in a betting way and, although she raced forwardly all the way, was never dangerous. Brilliant Ray set the pace, but gave way to Moco on the far turn and, tiring badly, fell an easy victim to the superior speed of the Zeus filly, which drew away into a two-lengths lead at the end.

STEEPLECHASE TO CREST HILL.

Steeplechasing has always been popular at Laurel and today's contest through the field attracted much interest despite the apparent superiority of J. H. Lewis' veteran jumper Crest Hill. The old fellow was at his best and, after racing under restraint all the way and outjumping his opponents easily, drew away when called on. Distant Shore was second after a hot finish, with Le Marsouin third. All seven starters finished the course without mishap.

Backed to the exclusion of all the other starters in the third race, W. L. Oliver's Dexterous, a cast-off from the Whitney stable, furnished one of the biggest upsets of the Maryland fall season when he was decisively beaten by J. W. Bean's All Fair. Everything pointed to an easy victory for the Peter Pan gelding when he opened a big lead on the first turn. He was a length and a half ahead of All Fair entering the stretch and his backers found no cause for alarm when the daughter of Allumeur challenged. But instead of drawing away as they expected Dexterous suddenly exhibited signs of tiring and despite Penman's vigorous riding could not successfully resist the great closing rush of All Fair. After a brief dying struggle in the final eighth Dexterous gave way and All Fair drew clear in the last few strides.

Merrimac made every post a winning one in the running of the fifth race. He was neglected by the public in favor of Lady Lillian. The latter was bothered at the start, but at best would have had to run a wonderful race to beat the winner

Hello Pardner accounted for the closing race when he was returned winner in a drive from Scotch Verdict and Franklin. The winner sprinted into a long lead rounding the first turn, but was doing his best to win at the end.

Bigheart will be unsexed this fall and put to steeplechasing next year.

Richard Pending, the track superintendent at Bowie, has sent out word that no yearlings would be allowed stall room for the coming meeting. The demand for stabling is greater than at any time in the history of Bowie racing.

O. E. Pons and E. W. Moore arrived from the Woodbine Park track yesterday and the latter had a starter in one of today's races.

William Porter journeyed from Toronto and assisted trainer Henry McDaniel with the routine work in connection with the J. K. L. Ross stable.

James Rowe, Jr., will make outside engagements for jockeys Coltilleti and Penman. The latter is still entitled to the apprentice allowance.

R. F. LEIGHTON GOING TO AUSTRALIA

VANCOUVER, B. C., October 4.—Robert F. Leighton, who was in a great measure responsible for the revival of racing in British Columbia and who presided as judge at the various meetings, will sail on November 12 for Australia. Judge Leighton expects to be gone for three months and will visit all the principal race courses in Australia and New Zealand. He will inspect the "totalizator," with a view of introducing the Australian method here if it is practical to do so.

Winner—Br. c, by Black Jester—China Song, by Santoi (trained by T. Welsh; bred in England by Maj. M. M. H. Nevile).

Went to post at 2:15. At post 4 minutes. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. COMIC SONG at once rushed into the lead and, making the pace fast, held sway for the entire race. MIRACLE MAN raced in a forward position all the way. FORGE AHEAD, shuffled back on the backstretch, saved ground on the turns and finished gamely. JUNO was off slowly and forced wide all the way, but closed a big gap. CLINCHFIELD was hard ridden from the start. FOREST QUEEN showed speed, but was poorly ridden.

Went to post at 2:40. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. GEM followed FRIZLET closely under restraint for a half mile, then raced into a long lead and won in a canter. TITANIUM easily passed FRIZLET in the last quarter. The latter was hard ridden all the way, but quit after going five-eighths. ROYAL JESTER ran out when going to the first turn.

Winner—Ch. c, by Heno—Aile d'Or, by Capt. Hancock (trained by W. V. Casey; bred by Belair Stud).

Went to post at 3:02. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. PRINCE JAMES, under slight restraint in the early running, was repeatedly cut off, but saved ground when entering the stretch and, finishing fast, outgamed COTE D'OR in the final drive, but when going to the first turn he crossed before GOLDEN FLINT, causing the latter to collide with ST. PATRICK, for which he was disqualified. COTE D'OR raced in closest early pursuit of WRECKER and was forced wide when entering the stretch, but came again and would have won anyhow in another stride. WRECKER set a fast early pace, but his rider repeatedly took him back in an effort to place him and he tired badly in the final drive. ST. PATRICK and GOLDEN FLINT were never dangerous.

Scratched—54150 Domingo, 110.

Winner—Ch. c, by Bryn Mawr—Coronis, by Voter (trained by F. Burlew; bred by Mr. Gifford A. Cochran).

Went to post at 3:34. At post 2 minutes. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. MAWRCORON soon raced up to the leader and, passing him, drew away after entering the stretch and easily maintained his advantage. LEGHORN, a bit slow at the start, gradually improved his position and outfinished HEPHAISTOS. The latter set a fast early pace and tired in the final strides. QUESADA closed up ground gamely all the way. MODESTY quit in the last quarter. KNOT GRASS ran poorly.

DISAGREEABLE WEATHER AT KEMPTON

MONTREAL, Que., October 4.—Eugene Lutz furnished the winner of the five and a half furlong dash, which featured the card at Kempton Park, La Prairie, this afternoon, with the mare Propaganda, which fairly reveled in the heavy going and easily took the measure of those opposing her. Waking Dream closing with a burst of speed got up to head Split Silk for second place.

Today's racing was run off under discouraging conditions. The sky was heavily overcast and cold winds swept across the field. It was the coldest day of the racing season, but a fair-sized crowd turned out.

Jockey J. Smith, who was injured in the fall in the first race yesterday, in which the horse Gloom was killed, will be out of the saddle several days as a result of his injuries. He is badly bruised about the hips and legs. Jockey Foden was also an absentee today with a bruised hip, but Eddie Atkinson resumed riding after having several stitches to his mouth.

H. E. Davis was fined $25 for being late at the paddock with the filly Naomi K.

After the first race yesterday a protest was lodged by J. Everest, owner of Whippoorwill, against the purse won by Col. Murphy, which had been given a seven-pound allowance that he was not entitled to. The conditions allowed seven pounds to a horse which had not won a race since July 15. It developed that Col. Murphy had won at the Quebec City meeting on August 19. The protest was allowed by the stewards and the purse awarded to Whippoorwill, while the second money was given to Jill, which finished third, and third money to Madrid, which finished fourth.

WEIGHTS FOR THE LATONIA CUP RACE

Next Saturday is the closing day at Latonia. For that occasion has been reserved as a special attraction the long-distance feature, the Latonia Cup of $7,500 added, at two and a quarter miles. Exterminator is assigned top weight of 135 pounds, but it appears as if the great gelding will be an absentee, as he was shipped from Woodbine to Laurel, where he has several stake engagements. Next on the list is Boniface with 122 pounds, followed by Damask with 118; Royce Rools, 114; Black Servant, 114, and Rangoon, 113. The complete weight assignment for this fixture follows:

RESULTS OF NEWMARKET SALES

The sales of yearlings which were conducted at Doncaster, England, on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of last week, could not be described as successful. On the contrary, a large number of the youngsters remained unsold and there was a considerable slump in prices.

The transactions recorded are as follows:

Thursday, September 27—Eleven lots averaged $4.975.

Wednesday, September 28—Forty-eights lots averaged $1,925.

Thursday, September 29—Thirty-seven lots averaged $2,275.

Friday, September 30—Fourteen lots averaged $2,012.

The top prices of the sale were paid for a colt by Polymelus—Willia, by William the Third, $9,000; a filly by The Tetrarch—Lychorida, by Black Sand, $7,500, and a colt by Sunstar—Flowing Cup, by Cupbearer, $7,500. These three were purchased by M. Gouculdas, the Greek sportsman.

A filly by Golden Sun—Blundella, by Mackintosh, was purchased for the account of Marshall Field at $7,250.

A BIG WINNER

on the PARI-OSTEND SYSTEM. Had less than $100 cash when I started operating this steady-profit system 18 months ago. This method especially adapted to operation in handbooks. Very moderate capital required. Have studied racing systems for many years, but this system outclasses them all in my opinion.

Will wire you the system horses and instructions early every morning. Ten-word telegrams sufficient. My fee is $10 out of each $100 you make. Write for full details of the PARI-OSTEND SYSTEM and wire service. Ask for circular entitled "In the Plainest Language Possible." Post cards positively ignored.
